

THE RIGHT FORM OF GOVERNMENT

Is there a perfect form of government that will unify the people and serve the best interest of the people, and protect the people from adverse evils? Yes, there is, a perfect form of government, but the people would not have it. Why? Because the people are divided up against one another through their own personal lusts, therefore no form of government will please all of the people. This all is about to change, but before it does we are going to see the complete failure of all forms of government by man.

Every since man has been on this earth a few men have ruled over the majority. In the early days these men came to power by having some ability to make the majority of the people feel that they would serve their best interests, such as protecting them from wild animals or enemy people. People would even exalt these “heroes” to the god status. As such men gained leverage and power over the people, they always ended up using the people and their wealth to serve their own self interest, and the poor were always at a disadvantage in these situations. The wealthy could usually buy favors from the king, and therefore have their way and will accomplished. The poor were usually the ones who suffered the most, when an unrighteous king was ruling. The poor were usually made to serve, and work while the rich reaped the benefits of their labor. If some crime were committed, the blame could always be laid on one or more of these poor. The poor man didn’t have any power or voice in the courts; they ended up being thrown in prison or even put to death, often times when he was completely innocent. Because of lust, greed, selfishness, and vanity in human nature, the mighty would oppress those with no might. This has been the case throughout history; if you care to study history of nations you will find that this is true.

Governments have changed hands by being passed down from father to son, and by military might, but the oppression has always continued. The reason for this oppression is because that man is not concerned with his fellow man, only with himself. Jesus Christ taught his followers that we should love our neighbor as our own self, but this philosophy is contrary to man's selfish nature. Man has been created by the Great Creator God to have a nervous system that unites all of his members to care for one another and work together in unity to accomplish the will of his mind. A man wouldn't do anything to harm his own arm or leg or any other member of his body, for he loves himself. The whole body is unified by the brain and the nervous system, to care for the whole united self. There is a spiritual nervous system that man is lacking which would unite man with his wife and in a less intimate relationship with his fellow man. That spiritual nervous system is the indwelling of the Holy Spirit of the Great Creator God! The first man Adam could have had the Holy Spirit come in to his human spirit and unite with his spirit to beget him with eternal life and it would have led him into obedience to the laws and wisdom of his maker, God Almighty. By that Holy Spirit in him, man would have been given the nature of God, which is love. Man would have been concerned with his fellow man instead of being selfish. Man could have been united with one another through our head, the living Word of God, and his mind in us. But Adam decided to disobey God and let his wife seduce him into taking of the fruit of the tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. By doing so, Adam rejected his maker God and chose to decide for himself what would be good and evil, right and wrong, instead of relying on God to instruct him in what is good and what is evil.

God knew that man was incapable of making right judgments concerning spiritual matters such as relationships with other humans, so since Adam made the decision to reject God as the source of wisdom and knowledge about what ways of living and behavior is right and wrong, God drove the man and his wife out of the Garden of Eden and placed angles and a flaming sword to bar the way back into the Garden. God couldn't let the man take of the Tree of Life and live forever in a sinful, selfish way. To live forever in sin would bring indescribable pain, misery, suffering, and destruction on mankind, and all that he rules over. All of the pain, suffering, heartache, and sorrows of this present world are a result of sin, disobedience to God, and his way of love. God couldn't allow that to happen, for that would be like this world's false religion teaches about Hell. God is more merciful than that, so he cut man off from access to eternal life. God sentenced man to six thousand years of living by his own ideas under Satan's influence, so that we would learn what the results of disobedience to God will bring. This world has written that record in blood, sweat, and tears, and if God don't cut it short man would destroy all fleshly life off of the earth. We are living in days when that is now a possibility!

This world has their own Ideas about God and religion, but they don't know the real God. This whole world has been cut off from God for near six thousand years. Only a very select few have been specially called of God and given his Holy Spirit. They were the Old Testament prophets and the New Testament Church. Most of the people on this earth who claim to be Christians are simply deceived, and don't even know the true Christ. They are a part of Satan's counterfeit Christianity. They teach that we don't need to obey the Commandments of God. They don't even understand God's master plan and purpose for man. They refuse to even keep God's Sabbath Day Holy by not working on the seventh day of the week. And they certainly are not being lead by God's Holy Spirit into caring for their fellow man as they do their selves. Even the churches of this world are plagued with vanity, fornication, adultery, lust, greed, selfishness, homosexuality, and divorce.

As a result of living without God's Holy Spirit, and divine wisdom about what is right and wrong; what way will produce good results for all instead of evil results; man's governments have also failed to be for the good of the people. Selfish, vain and powerful men have ruled over the people and oppressed them to no end. During this six thousand years man has tried every conceivable form of government, and none of them have solved this problem of men oppressing others. Human nature apart from God is evil, selfish, greedy, lustful, vain, hateful, and unconcerned for his fellow man's pain and suffering. Man's selfish nature leads him to commit offences against his fellow humans and don't care for their wellbeing. Kings, presidents, prime ministers, governors, and even congressmen all are primarily looking out for self, and their own interests. The rest of the people are the same way; human nature is the same in all people for it is really Satan the devils nature. Man apart from God has made himself subject to the wicked serpent that deceived Eve in the Garden of Eden. Satan is spirit and man can't see him, but he broadcasts his evil way of thinking into the unsuspecting minds of all of mankind.

Certain societies of people have had standards of what is acceptable and unacceptable behavior in people. This caused people to be able to resist some of Satan's influence in their hearts and minds, but we now live in a society that is throwing off all restraints and greedily following their evil lusts. Such a nation or world as this cannot survive for long!

Now back to government and its oppression of the people: Because of the oppression of unrighteous kings, dictators, and emperors; our founding forefathers of this nation, The United States of America decided to declare their independence from England and form a new kind of government. The founding fathers of this nation had the idea that all men were created equal in God's sight, so men should treat one another as equals, and not have one class of wealthy, and powerful men take wrongful advantage of the poor and less powerful. Even then though, these seemingly wise men didn't consider other races to be equal, for they were involved in slavery of the black people. This just goes to show how that without the Holy Spirit in man, he can't truly love others as his own self. The white race of men was looking out for their own collective self interest. You need to read my article on "The Answer to Racism" which is also posted on the internet. At least these founding fathers did seem to have the Idea that all white men were created equal, and that they all had the God given right to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. They believed that men of their race and nation should not be subjected to the harsh, unloving, selfish rule of a tyrant, king, or dictator. They understood by personal experience, as well as by history, that powerful kings rule selfishly, and according to their own lust, and not for the good of the people. That is not just the way that a few bad kings ruled, but that is the way human nature is. Mans Satan influenced nature is selfish, lustful, greedy, vain, and not concerned for the wellbeing of his neighbor as he is for himself.

These founding fathers of this nation understood this, and decided that they would form a government that would be for the good of the people. In order to do this they decided that the government must be by the people. The people would have a say in the government's power, and authority. They were assuming that the people were righteous enough to decide what would be best for themselves.

I need to mention here that people have the idea that to be truly happy they must have things go their own way. People don't like it when someone else tries to force their will off on them. Human nature is of the idea that to be happy all they need is to be totally free to do as they please, and have their own way accomplished. I tell you by the authority of God Almighty that, freedom is only as good as the character of the people who have it. It does seem logical to the human mind that when all of the people are involved in making government decisions that the results should be somewhat better than if one man, or only a few made the decisions for all of the rest of us. Since it is near impossible for the nation to take a vote from every person on every issue; they decided to have each state choose a number of delegates to represent them and their interest in government matters. If all men were truly concerned with one another as they are for their own self, and they all chose honest men who would truly represent them, and then this would have worked fairly well. Even then though, unless the people truly did know and love their creator God and seek first to live by his laws and wisdom; they still wouldn't have right government. You can't improve on the laws of God. If we don't live by God's law and wisdom, then you will have ignorance about what our main goal in life should be and how to achieve it. As a result of not understanding our God ordained purpose for existing, and how to achieve it; men have tried to give themselves purpose for being. These manmade purposes are invariably selfish goals of greedily gathering wealth and power, and seeking to satisfy selfish fleshly lusts, and take advantage of the labors of fellow men instead of being content with the fruit of their own labors.

Freedom and Democracy was the idea that seemed like such a wonderful way of government to our founding fathers. They were willing to fight and die for these principles. I must also agree that this idea as it was originally intended by our forefathers is the best form of government that men have ever come up with, for it does give all of us a little say in government policy, which is better than no say at all. But as I have said before, freedom is only as good as the character of the people that have it. The problem is our people as a nation have never truly known the Great Creator God, and his Holy Laws of love have not been in the hearts of the people. True when this nation was first founded there was much more respect for Godly values than there is today. The farther our nation strays away from Godly values, the more oppression that we suffer from one another and by our elected delegates. Without the Holy Spirit of God guiding them the people turn to all manner of sin, selfishness, lust, greed, vanity; and they are divided against their fellow man by their lusts. So in order to get their own selfish, and lustful way accomplished, they join together with others of similar lusts and form powerful lobbyist groups which are constantly lobbying, and bribing for the delegates to vote in their favor. The rich are against the poor, the labor unions against the company management, the women who want freedom to kill their unborn children against those of us who value a Childs life. Homosexuals lobby for the freedom to live and promote their perverted lifestyle. Even the religions of this world are fornicating with the rulers of this world by getting involved in trying to set their will on everyone else. People even have powerful lobbyist who try and protect the freedom of promoting pornography. Even convicted criminals have those lobbying for less punishment, and freedom to live a pleasant and comfortable life in prison. This list could go on and on, but all people are divided against each other by their evil selfish lusts. By such wicked and selfish means Satan has been able to regulate government policy in such a way as to do away with sound wisdom, honesty, righteous judgment, decent family values, and the Laws of God Almighty.

The idea of freedom and democracy seemed like the answer to men being oppressed by other men when our government was being formed, but again I must say that Freedom is only as good as the character of the people that have it. When the wicked are in authority, the people suffer; that is true even when it is the people who rule in a government by the people. Everyone is selfishly divided up against each other. Mans selfish lust pits him against his fellow man. The only way that will truly work and bring about good results for all, is when man is united with one another by brotherly love. When man truly does love his neighbor as his own self, then we can experience results that are good for all of us. Man can't make this happen, but it will happen to man soon.

The government based on freedom and democracy is the best form of government that man can come up with to protect the people from oppression from a king or dictator, but it also is miserably failing to protect the people from the oppression of Satan the Devil. Satan the Devil is a great and powerful spirit angle that has turned in rebellion against his maker God and is ruling on the throne of this whole earth. God has left him here on earth ruling until man has learned that his way that he has chose will bring nothing but suffering, heartache, pain, anguish, destruction, and death. God Almighty is very soon going to send his son Jesus Christ back to this earth in all of the power and Glory of God Almighty to cast Satan off of his throne and replace him as King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Satan has power to act on the unsuspecting minds of people to cause them to lust against obeying God and his perfect Laws. Satan works in the minds of the average human stirring him up to do evil against his fellow man while perusing his idea of happiness. There can be no peace and unity in such an evil world. Before Jesus Christ comes back to rule this earth, first all governments will have proved to be a complete failure. If Christ don't come back and stop it just in time, man would destroy all fleshly life off of this earth; that is now possible with nuclear and biological weapons of mass destruction! (Matt. 24:22)

When Christ comes back, those few faithful saints who have been called and lead by the Holy Spirit in this life time, and who have truly surrendered their will to do the will of God and Christ, they will rise to meet Christ in the air, and will be instantly born again as Spirit God beings. (I Cor. 15: 51-53) (I Thess. 4: 15-17) We shall rule with, and under Christ over all nations of this world. (Rev. 20: 4) (Rev. 2: 26-27) We will rule with the righteous judgments and laws of God. Those people who live on this earth at that time will be given opportunity to repent of their own evil, selfish way, and surrender completely to obey God. If they do, then they will be given the Holy Spirit also to lead them in overcoming their evil nature, and developing Holy Righteous Character so that they live always by the way of deepest love and respect for their maker and his wisdom, and also love their fellow humans as their own self. Then there can be peace and goodness for all. Those who refuse to obey even when God punishes them for their disobedience, they will be destroyed. (Rev. 19: 21) The new world that Christ rules over, will be made up of only people who will obey God above all else. The Devil that has ruled this world will not be allowed to rule, (Rev. 20: 1-3) but Christ and the 144000 true saints (Rev. 14: 1-5) will rule that world. That will be perfect Government, from the top down, and not from the bottom up. Natural minded men are not capable of ruling for the good of all of the people, because of their selfish unrighteous nature, but Christ and his faithful saints will rule for the good of the people, and according to God's true purpose for man.

My friends, this message is, the true Gospel, or good news that Jesus Christ brought to this earth nearly two thousand years ago; The Good News of the Kingdom of God. Jesus said that this gospel being published to all nations for a witness would be a sign that his coming is near! (Matt. 24: 14) Mr. Herbert W. Armstrong preached this same Gospel to this world for over fifty years until his death in 1986. Now God has given me power through the computer internet system to again preach this Good news of the Government of God to this world. Most people now days use the internet as their main highway of communication, for most people of the developed, and even the developing nations have access to a computer. Christ's second coming is not far off! I warn each one of you to take a good hard look at this evil world and at your own unrighteous nature and repent, and start obeying God. There is much evil ahead for the people of this evil world, but through the trying times ahead, I and God hopes that many will repent and completely surrender to do the will of God so that you may be saved, and allowed to live over into the wonderful world tomorrow. The righteous will rejoice at Christ's coming, but the wicked will mourn; even so, God speed that day.

A true friend and witness of God and Christ,

Gary Stowers
